ATLANTA, June 30, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ ----Katy Keck of New York, NY was one of four honorees recognized by the Points of Light Institute. Keck was honored June 28 at a gala event in New York City at the 2010 National Conference on Volunteering and Service. The Corporation for National and Community Service.

Katy Keck believes that every child needs a mentor, and is working hard to make that a reality. Keck is a volunteer leader with teens and pre-teens in South Africa with adults internationally, using online video-based mentoring.

With an estimated 55 million youth affected by HIV/AIDS and poverty in sub-Saharan Africa, Keck felt it was critical to connect alone. She believes that by creating these connections, children will begin to define their lives by what they have to gain, not Keck has been the lead volunteer for Infinite Family since it began. With her professional background in event planning, she has. For each event, she pulls together a large group of volunteers and dozens of sponsors and in-kind donors. Over the course of the year, she has raised over $200,000 in donations.

As a young organization, IF benefits from Keck's leadership in fundraising, developing marketing and communication tools, a website, and more. Through her leadership, Katy Keck has inspired her friends, family and business partners to become active change agents, providing
